

AGREEMENT FOR THE EXCHANGE OF SERVICES
BETWEEN THE CFC AND THE FQE

- For the duration of this agreement, CFC will grant the following privilege to FQE members residing in Quebec as they would be allowed to participate in any CFC rated tournaments in Quebec (as long as they are also FQE rated) and outside Quebec, without having to pay for a tournament passport or membership fees.
- For the duration of this agreement, FQE will grant the following privilege to CFC members residing outside Quebec as they would be allowed to participate in any FQE rated tournament outside Quebec (as long as they are also CFC rated) and in Quebec, without having to pay a tournament passport or membership fees.
- FQE would participate on the selection committee for determining participation to International events, 1/3 of the composition of those committees would be FQE representatives.
- FQE membership numbers would be included in the CFC's membership tally.
- FQE rated tournaments could be submitted to FIDE, with the requirement that they be rated by the CFC first.
- FQE members would be allowed to participate to Canadian Nationals at the same conditions as if they were CFC members.
- FQE members would be considered for inclusion on Canadian National Teams on the same basis as CFC members.
- FQE will make its magazine available to members of the CFC. The CFC will make its e-zine available to members of the FQE. The CFC will provide its material free of charge, while the FQE will charge 6$ per year to cover postage costs.
- The CFC recognizes a need to satisfy its provincial affiliates, who support the federation through memberships and who receive benefits, including FIDE access, as a result. The CFC also recognizes that the FQE is uniquely able to satisfy the needs of French-speaking Canada and should be treated accordingly. The following fee structure will apply:
  - The FQE will pay a 9$ fee per adult membership and 4$ for junior and cadet membership. The payment will occur in the following fashion: On the anniversary date of the agreement, FQE will report its membership per category and pay an annual fee according to those numbers.
  - Annual fees collected are placed in a trust, earmarked for FIDE-related* expenses, overseen by 50% FQE Trustees and 50% CFC Trustees.
  - CFC will charge the same fees (or higher) to Quebec residents who would request membership in the CFC in order to avoid arbitrage.
  - FQE will charge its non Quebec members, the same fees (or higher) than the CFC to non Quebec resident in order to avoid arbitrage.

*Including, but not limited to, Olympiads, World Cups, FIDE Congresses, World Junior and World Youth events. This agreement is valid for 3 years starting August 1st, 2012.
