World Chess Olympiad, Russia – A Canadian Perspective

This biennial gathering of the top players in the chess world began on Sunday Sept. 19 (Rd. 1 on Monday, Sept. 21), and ran to Oct. 4 (Rd. 11 on Oct. 3). Each country fields 2 teams of 5 players – 4 + 1 reserve; one team is in the Open section (men and women can play); one team is in the Women’s section (women only). 159 national and 119 women teams were registered. A total of 1380 player competed in the two sections.. The statistics are impressive - 772 titled players - out of them 247 GM’s, 63 WGM’s, 160 IM’s, 87 WIM’s, 81 FM’s, and 80 WFM’s.

From a Canadian perspective, the talk of the town is that IM Thomas Roussel-Roozman earned his GM title with his outstanding performance ! Competing with this was Mark Bluvshstein's win over # 2 ranked Veselin Topalov

. As well, Yelizaveta Orlova got her Women's Candidate Master title.

Finally, Yuanling got a near miss – had she won her last game, she would have earned her Women's GM title – but unfortunately she lost. But her score of almost 70% (7.5/11 pts.) was exceptionally good.

Congratulations to Thomas, Mark., Liza and Yuanling.

Canada sent 2 of its youngest teams ever – the average age of the national team was 21 years; of the women's team – 19 years. For this event, Canada's national team was ranked # 53 among the 159 FIDE countries playing, and the Women's Team was # 58.

Here are Canada's results

Open Section

10	53	Canada	1 – 1 (2 – 2)	Kazakhstan	41
11	53	Canada	1 – 1 (2 – 2)	Montenegro	56

Canada's Total : 13 match points; 25 game points.

A bit disappointing to end with a draw, against a team we had every hopes of defeating. But the open section team did rise substantially in the rankings - 16 places ! – they finished # 37 (started at # 53). They had an excellent result drawing Bulgaria, including Mark defeating Veselin Topalov, # 2 in the world, and Croatia. They defeated Denmark. The result, though not spectacular, was solid and a good improvement. The team deserves our thanks for such good representation of our country.

Here are the individual records of the 5 players:

Canada's Total: 10 match points; 23 game points..

I'm sure there was lots of disappointment at the Rd. 11 loss. Venezuela was the type of team the women had to defeat to rise in the rankings – and there were legitimate expectations they could win Rd. 11. But it was not to be – they dropped in the ranking to # 67 (started at # 58). But it was a young team (average age – 19 years), with 3 juniors, and 3 players without prior Olympiad experience. Under the circumstances, the result is respectable, and again, our thanks for the fine representation of Canada.

1962-3 Scarborough Chess Club Championship

(submitted by freelancer David Cohen)

In March 1954, the Chess Federation of Canada published its first Rating List of 376 Canadian chess players. The project was actually begun in 1952. In 1953, the CFC's first Ratings Statistician, Phil Haley, obtained from Kenneth Harkness, the business manager of the United States Chess Federation, a list of over 200 Canadians who had played in the States and obtained US ratings. The initial Canadian list was topped by Frank Anderson and Abe Yanofsky, both rated 2440.

Harkness had created the ratings system in 1950; it wasn't until 1960 that Arpad Elo improved it. Meanwhile, Haley set about producing the first 'made in Canada' list. He gathered together all of the Canadian tournaments he could, and created the second list for the 1955 CFC Annual Meeting. This began the tradition of the chess rating period following the CFC's year, which ran from Annual Meeting to Annual Meeting. These were typically held in the summer (once the Canadian Open Championship got started in 1956). So, the annual rating cycle also followed the natural cycle of the local chess club, which typically starts up each fall. The October 1955 list had 780 names!

After the 1955 CFC Annual Meeting, Haley turned the post over to Adrian van Lieshout of Smithers, B.C. He would hold the post for many years, maintaining records every bit as meticulous as Haley's. Scarborough Chess Club was founded in 1960. In my previous article, I reported on the introductory SCC Championship, held in 1961. TD Alex Knox followed up this success with the Scarborough Spring Swiss, with 11 players competing in 6 rounds from March 28 - May 9. First place with identical +5 -1 scores, in tie-break order, were Alexander Knox, Frank Reilley and Ronald Maynard. TD Knox concluded his report by stating "... and so ended another fine tournament."

Knox then appears to have turned the TD duties over to Ted Tebbs. Unfortunately, no events were submitted for CFC rating in the 1961-2 Club year. During the 1962-3 Club year, four events were submitted. The SCC Easter Invitational was a 21 player, 8 round Swiss, held in April. R. Turkevich and Dusan Kustudic shared first with identical scores of +5 =2 -1. From December, 1962 through April, 1963, the SCC Rating tournament was held, with 16 players competing over 6 rounds. Howard Ridout won with a perfect score.

The 1962-3 SCC Championship ran from September, 1962 through February, 1963, in three sections. The Champion from Class A was Andrew Pressburger, who dominated the 12 player Round Robin with +10 -1, losing only to second place finisher Howard Ridout (+8 =1 -2). Class B was also a 12 player RR: B. Bockfeldt won a playoff over Dusan Kustudic, after both scored +10 =1. Class C was an 8 player RR: Lloyd Zimmerman won with +5 =2. Overall, there were two female competitors.

The 1962-3 season wrapped up with the SCC Rating Tournament, designed to obtain ratings for unrated players. In effect, it was a Team Scheveningen: Rated's vs. Unrated's. Top score was by rated player Ronald Maynard, who won all 12 of his games, beating every unrated player.

Toronto Thanksgiving Day Open

(Report by Alex Ferreira)

Congrats to Bindi Cheng for winning the tournament with 5.0/6, conceding draws only to Nikolay Noritsyn and Leonid Gerzhoy. 2-3 with 4.5/6 were Noritsyn & Victor Plotkin.

SCC – Who Are We??

This is a series, in each Issue, where we introduce to our subscribers, the members who make up SCC, the friendliest chess club in Canada ! This Issue we introduce

Gord Marcille

‘Introduction to the challenging game of Chess’

I first experienced the wonderful game of Chess while watching the science fiction television show called Star Trek. I was in my late teens and I watched Captain Kirk have a match with his first officer, named Mr. Spock. Spock was from the planet called Vulcan. The Chess Board had three levels and I guess this was my first insight into this game.

I also remember the 1972 World Chess Championship between Bobby Fischer and Boris Spassky. I also remember watching movies where many heroes or villains were playing Chess.

One of the scenes that come to mind is in the movie, ‘Casablanca’. Humphrey Bogart was studying the Chess board while Sam was playing at the piano in the Bar.

I bought my first Chess board set at Consumers Retail store in 1975. I studied the pieces and the moves of Chess during that time. I also purchased a few books on Beginners Chess which gave me an insight into opening moves and other moves on the board.

I well remember a freezing day in January 1977 when I was down at Yonge and Gould streets in Toronto. This was before the cement Chess tables were installed on the street. Joseph Smolij was sitting in the doorway of a store with his milk cartons to hold the chess board and pieces on.

He would haul all of his Chess equipment with a grocery cart to the spot that he would play.

I met Joe that day. He reminded me of the character from history called Gregorian Rasputin, (long grey beard, Hungarian accent). He asked if I would be interested in playing a game of Chess. I sat down on a milk carton, agreed to the 50 cent a game price and the setting of his Chess clock for five minutes.

He told me that when I see the red flag drop, then I lose. I agreed and we played a few moves. It did not take much time before I was defeated. He asked quickly for his 50 cents. I continued to play over a number of years with Joe and I can assure you that he took every one of the 50 cent games. He raised it to a $1:00 a game some years later.

I give credit to Joe Smolij for making me the Chess player that I have become. He tutored me along the way especially about different tactics within the game. He taught me about castling, forking with Knights, controlling the four centre squares on the board, open files, back ranks and many other aspects.

He was my inspiration for loving and enjoying the game.

I think many Chess players who knew him would agree he put Chess on the map in Downtown Toronto. Many people would gather around Joe and others at the corner of Yonge and Gould to watch the games. The City of Toronto had permanent tables placed at the Square during the 1980’s right up until a few years ago when Sam the Record Store was closed.

In 1990, I heard of a Chess Club at Porter Collegiate, which is located at St. Clair and Warden Avenues. I went to enquire and met Maurice Smith in the cafeteria. He was the President of this Chess Club. We both sat down and had a few games of Chess. We talked about Chess and I became a member of the Scarborough Chess club that very night.

I had to stop playing for a few years because my work had changed my schedule to evenings. It was impossible to attend the Club or make the Tournaments.

I now have a new work schedule and this begins my second year at the Scarborough Chess Club. It is really great to see a lot of the regular players going back to the 1990's.

In closing, I give Maurice Smith my utmost respect for keeping Chess alive and bringing people who love the game together over the years. I enjoy my membership at the Scarborough Chess Club and believe it is one of the best Clubs in Canada.

Rick's Chess Trivia

(questions/presentations researched by our columnist Rick Garel, former SCC Executive, former SCC member, Orillia CC President)

Last Issue's Chess Trivia was the Question:

Chess is considered by one, the second most elaborate waste of human intelligence. What is the most elaborate? Who said this?

Rick's Answer is:

Most Elaborate Waste of Human Intelligence : Advertising !

Speaker: Raymond Chandler, in The Long Goodbye, said: [“ Chess] is as elaborate a waste of human intelligence as you could find anywhere outside an advertising agency. ”

Bragging Rights Winner :

SCC member Pino Verde did give the right answer. We are awarding him the bragging rights this Issue – thanks for playing again Pino (he has submitted a number of answers for prior Issues, and has been one of our prior winners). But honourable mention must be given to our freelancer contributor, David Cohen, who also came in with the right answer, but about 24 hrs. after Pino.

Today's Trivia Question is:

Which chess player from the past published an edition of Shakespeare's plays?

You can use any resource available to answer the question ! Just find it fast and send it in as fast as you can, by e-mail, to Rick : rickgarel@gmail.com .

The first correct e-mail received wins, and gets bragging rights. Also, we will publish the honoured winner's name in the next newsletter, along with a few details they provide as to their chess experience (if they wish), along with Rick's researched answer.

Thanks for playing !!

Chess History is fun !!

SCC'ers at the Canadian Open

SCC was well-represented at the Canadian Open, held in Toronto July 10-18. We had 30 members in attendance, spread throughout the prize groups. Congratulations to all the SCC'ers who were prize winners (we noted them in the Prize Winners' List in Issue # 11-22 – the 10 most recent Issues are archived on our newsletter website: <http://scarboroughchess.webhop.net>).

I did my normal begging at the end of the Open, for games for the newsletter, and actually a few SCC'ers were shamed by my pitiable state, and sent in some games! The last 5 Issues we presented 10 games. We now continue the series with the last 2 games, Thanks to all those who shared their games with us!

In the last round, 2 SCC'ers met. Pepin Manalo submitted his win over SCC'er Doug Gillis. Pepin managed to go up 2 P's, but then Doug got one of them back. But Doug missed a nice dual attack situation, and Pepin won. Here is the game (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

In Rd. 8, expert SCC'er Andrew Picana, who recently won the Reserves section of the 2010-11 Club Championship, played junior master Arthur Calugar. Arthur got the advantage early, but Andrew hung on, and got back to equality in the middle game and battled equal for quite a while, and even got a "clear" advantage. Then the game went back to equality, until on move 77, in the ending, Andrew grabbed a poisoned P and was finished. A good battle by Andrew. Here is the game (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

SCC Howard Ridout Memorial Swiss

This first swiss tournament of the season runs for 6 rounds, from Thursday, Sept. 9 to October 21 (since there was no meeting on Oct. 7 – we couldn't get the hall).

For this tournament, we have a total of 88 registrations. This is consistent with the turnout we were getting from Jan. – June, last season.

The registrations for the three sections are:

Over 2000 - 20 registrations (headed by 5 masters and 3 former masters)

Under 2000 (to 1700) – 35 registrations

Under 1700 – 33 registrations

After 5 rounds, the leaders are:

Over 2000 – 1. 4 pts. – Dave Southam

2. 3.5 pts. – Erwin Casareno

Under 2000 (to 1700) – 1. 4.5 pts. – Ferdinand Cale

2/4 4 pts. – Mike Conte; Magas Yusuf; Paul Corvo.

Under 1700 – 1. 5 pts. – Tom Muir

2/3. 4 pts. – Andrew Philip; Steve Karpik

Games are collected each week (the white score sheet is handed in; the player gets the yellow carbon) – this is mandatory on all members. But there will be no games of this tournament sent out to members in database format, nor published, until the tournament has concluded (due to the SCC policy, adopted at the September 2009-10 SCC AGM, concerning score sheets, the games database, and the newsletter. If anyone is interested in finding out about this policy, just e-mail me at bobarm@sympatico.ca and I will forward to you the policy.)

SCC member Ken Kurkowski and I, as volunteers, enter the SCC games each week into the tournament database, which, as was said, will be sent out to members when the tournament is concluded. I analyze or partly analyze a substantial number of the games, and from time to time Ken also analyzes a few games for the newsletter and/or the database..

Express Your INNER Self !!

Got a chess issue that has been bothering you for a while? Got a favourite chess topic that you've always wanted to share with other chess players? Read something in SCTCN&V that you profoundly agreed with, or maybe (surely not !) disagreed with?

SCTCN&V may be for you. We are very open to publishing freelance articles from our readers – David Cohen, Erwin Casareno and Erik Malmsten, among others, have presented us with material in the past. We have a columnist, Rick Garel. Maybe there's a writer inside just waiting to get going !

Also, if you would like us to cover some topic, send us your idea, and we'll see if we can write something up on it.

This may be the chance you've been waiting for ! Want to express your inner self???
