Edited by Stephen Ball

This eleventh issue of Northern gives the ratings intermediate between EP # 70 and # 71.

Tournament Memberships

Reminder: the new CFC "Tournament Membership" costs a minimum of $5 (or $1 per round for events with more than 5 rounds). This will entitle the new member to one issue of En Passant, but not to a membership card. The membership is valid only for the one tournament. With all the complaints about the high initial cost of playing, this will provide a relatively inexpensive introduction to tournament chess for the newcomer. This type of membership is only available to those just starting to play in rated events.

Blacklist

The CFC Blacklist is published in each issue of Northern. The list divides itself into three groups:

1. Those who have bounced cheques to organizers and have failed to make them good: Irene Gil, Don Mills; Nick Treanor, St Catherines;
2. Those who have repeatedly played in CFC tournaments without being a member: Daniel Boudreau, Hauterive; Sofie Golebiewski, Toronto; Andre Jean, Montreal; Andris Leimanis, Montreal; Roger Page, Montreal;
3. Those who have bounced cheques or refused to pay for goods or services from the CFC: Richard Brown, Winnipeg; Ken Field, Toronto; June Hogquist, Milwaukee; Peter Kimmerly, Vancouver; Joe Lovett, USA; Ligue d'échecs de Québec; Mike Mansfield, Ottawa; Suzanne Pepin, Ottawa; Dave Ridge, Toronto; Linda Sedore, Toronto; Tim Stewart, Hamilton; Stimulus Sales, Barrie Ont.

World Championship

After 31 games, Karpov leads by a score of 5-0. This means that there have been only 2 decisive games since the seventh round. Many of the draws have been short, not even passing the end of well known opening theory. This has caused some consternation among Moscow fans, who were actually booing the contestants after one such "quickie".

With the match setting a new record for number of draws, and likely to exceed the previous record for longest world championship match, FIDE may be forced to reconsider the format of the World Championship once again. A match of unlimited duration is a fine thing in theory, but how many organizers will be willing to offer a playing site, food and accommodation for an indefinite period of time?

Maya Chiburdanidze held on to her Women's World Championship title with a score of $8\frac{1}{2}$ - $5\frac{1}{2}$. The match was a "best of 16", with the title being retained by the champion in the event of a tie after 16. Irina Levitina won the third round, lost the fourth, regained the lead in round 8, and then lost rounds 9, 10, 12 and 13. This gave Chiburdanidze the necessary 8 points, but they played one more "just for fun".

1984 Olympiad

The 1984 Chess Olympiads ended with the Soviet Union capturing first, notwithstanding the absence of Karpov and Kasparov from the team. Their final score was 41-15. England edged out the USA in the last round to take silver, finishing with 37 while the USA had 35.

The Canadian team finished 19th in a field of 91 teams, with 31 points. This result might be termed "good but not spectacular".

Individual results and performance ratings (the latter based on the first 13 rounds): Duncan Suttles $5/11$ (2388); Jean Hébert $6\frac{1}{2}/12$ (2385); Roman Pelts $8/11$ (2577!); Lawrence Day $5\frac{1}{2}/10$ (2360); Brian Hartman $5/9$ (2345); Deen Hergott $1/3$ (2152).

Best individual result was John Nunn of England on board 2, scoring $10/11$ with a performance rating of 2810. Beljavsky and Dzindzhashvili both had performance ratings over 2700.

The Canadian Women's Olympiad Team finished 17th in a field of 51, with 22 points. The USSR was first with 32-10, Bulgaria second with $27\frac{1}{2}$, Rumania third with 27.

Nava Shterenberg put in a good performance on first board, scoring $8/12$ (2140). Céline Roos had an excellent result. Her $9\frac{1}{2}/13$ (2108) won the Gold Medal on second board. Vesma Baltgailis scored $4/10$ (1889) while Diane Mongeau had "one of those tournaments" with $\frac{1}{2}/7$ (1616).

We can only surmise that Karpov was very short of time and that Kasparov's draw offer was accepted almost immediately. The final position is at least +/-.
