NEWS

Ontario Closed

A hastily organized Closed was unable to attract all of the province's strong players, but got under way with an IM and 3 FMs. Bryon Nickoloff was not able to continue after the first round and the peripatetic Tom O'Donnell, now based in Ottawa, took first place with 6-2. Tom won $200 and the right to represent Ontario in the 1989 Canadian Closed. Hot on O'Donnell's heels were Deen Hergott (Ottawa), and Doug Bailey (Hamilton) with 5.5.

Ontario Open

The Victoria Day long weekend in Arnprior saw Torontonians Gordon Taylor give up two draws en route to a 5-1 score and a half point lead over Brian Hartman, Glen Johnstone, John Armstrong and David Southam. A total of 80 players was a good turnout for Arnprior.

Vancouver Island Open

Held in Nanaimo the weekend before the Keres Memorial, this was a strong warmup for the province's top players. The presence of GM Kevin Spraggett in BC for this tournament and the Keres was a big draw. IM Leon Piasetski was the winner with a perfect 5-0 score which included a fourth round upset of Spraggett.

Keres Memorial

With 22 players rated over 2200, this was one of the strongest weekend tournaments ever held in Canada. In addition to GM Spraggett, and IMs Donaldson and Piasetski, there were 5 FMs. Spraggett was the favourite but after three rounds had only 1.5 points (draw with Piasetski, loss to Nigel Fullbrook). Tom O'Donnell was the leader most of the way and went into the final round a half point ahead of the field. His chances for first were ended by Spraggett. Joining Spraggett in first with 5.5 was FM Alex Kuznecov. O'Donnell, John Donaldson, Jeremy Silman and Leon Piasetski shared third with 5 points.

Elsewhere in Canada

In other action on the Victoria Day weekend, Billy Peckford swept the Nova Scotia Open with a perfect 6-0 score. Rehan Huda scored 5.5-5 to take first place in the Manitoba Open.

NETHERLANDS

The Optiebeurs tournament in Amsterdam was a quadruple round robin with the amazing average rating of 2674. World Champion Gary Kasparov won with the phenomenal score of 9-3. Karpov finished second a mile behind at 6.5, followed by Timman (5.5) and John van der Wiel (3). In the fifth round Kasparov finally made a dent in Karpov's Caro-Kann:

NEW ZEALAND

At an international tournament in Wellington, Boris Spassky, Murray Chandler and Eduard Gufeld tied for first with 7.5-3.5. Spassky shook off the passivity which had overtaken him in the past decade and played a number of exciting games.

The Grandmasters Association has come out against FIDE's plan to award GM and IM titles for active chess. Although the FIDE plan was to distinguish these titles from the existing GM and IM titles, the GMA is strongly opposed. GMA President Gary Kasparov went to the extent of proposing a motion "morally condemning" the idea and GMA members who took part in FIDE Active chess events.

Please remember to put the DATES of your tournament on the crosstables you submit to the Chess Federation of Canada for rating. It is important to rate tournaments in the order in which they are played. Thank you for your co-operation in helping to maintain the accuracy of the rating system!

Including the names of the tournament organizer, the reporter and the tournament director on the crosstable will enable us to properly acknowledge those who put in the time and effort to make the tournament a success.
